Discover the fascinating world of Mexico. There are several hidden treasures just waiting to be explored. Ancient Aztec pyramids, authentic foods and fantastic shopping. Whether you're looking to visit past civilizations or simply lie on the beach and work on your golf game... Mexico can accommodate.

A passionate celebration for life, Mexico is a country of countries. From the glorious metropolis of Mexico City to the tropical jungles of Chiapas, a visit to Mexico is a voyage through the living veins of a fascinating country. Cancun is a lively resort with spectacular white sand beaches and a variety of restaurants and bars whilst 80 miles south is Tulum, which is a lot quieter.

To wedding or honeymooners it is the perfect romantic getaway to start life together. To outdoor sports enthusiasts, Cancun is the perfect place to catch some great waves, go parasailing or dive in the clear blue ocean

Cozumel remains a serene, quiet and undiscovered piece of paradise although it is actually the largest inhabited. The combination of natural beauty and visitor amenities rivals any Caribbean island destination. Until recent years, Cozumel was known mainly as a popular port-of-call for cruise ship passengers and not much else. That has begun to change, however, as more and more visitors discover the stunning natural beauty of Cozumel.

This mix of modern and traditional, clichéd and surreal, is the key to Mexico's charm, whether your passion is throwing back margaritas, listening to howler monkeys, surfing the Mexican Pipeline, scrambling over Mayan ruins or expanding your collection of posable Day of the Dead skeletons.. Mexico has it all!
